MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers (for high school and undergraduate college students)

The style recommended for preparing student research papers concerns itself with the mechanics of writing, such as punctuation, quotation, and documentation of sources.

Different types of publications (all have their own rules but follow some basic guidelines):

Commas, periods, italics, spacing and structure must be EXACT!!!! Doublespaced, 2nd line indented (hanging indent) and in alphabetical order.

Book Guidelines:

Author – last name, first middle (if given)

Note: may be a "corporate author": any group whose individual members are not identified on the title page. Sometimes author is also publisher- see 3rd example Title (italicized) Publishing info. (city, state: publisher) Year Medium (Print)
